Tenth Annual Sports Day -27.09.2023

Circular

17.08.2023

Sub: Preparation for Sports Day Events

Dear HoDs and House In-charges,

We are excited to announce the upcoming Tenth Annual Sports Day scheduled on 27th September 2023. As we have an incredible line up of events that cater to various interests and talents, I would like to request your full cooperation and commitment in making this event a resounding success. Sports day is not only a platform to showcase our students' athletic prowess but also an opportunity to foster camaraderie, team spirit and healthy competition among our students.

To ensure a seamless and well-organized sports day, you are expected to stick to the following instructions:

1. When we have preparations for the Sports day events the college will function till 03.30 p.m. Please refer the attachment 1 for clarity.
2. On the days mentioned above, from 02.00 p.m. to 03.30 p.m. group games/team games will be held. Those who are not in the games are expected to be in their respective classrooms engaging themselves in academic activities.
3. The list of allocation of staff in-charge, members and students for each house is attached with this document.
4. The list of events with the scheduled date and time is also attached with this circular and is placed in the notice board as well.
5. The House In-charge should meet the House members and the students in the designated places given below in the 5th hour today (18.08.2023).

S. No	House	Place for Meeting
1.	Green	College Auditorium - Block C
2.	Yellow	College Canteen
3.	Red	AV Hall - Block C
4.	Blue	In front of the Church

6. The purpose of the meeting is to select a captain and vice-captain for your respective house and to collect the list of students who will partake in different events. Please work closely with your respective houses to identify potential participants for various sports and events. Encourage active participation and motivate students to showcase their talents. Keep track of their progress and provide necessary guidance and training.
7. Submit the name list of students participating for each event on or before August 21, 2023.
8. Coordinate with the sports department to conduct the events on time.
9. For each event, a faculty member from each house should be in the field in the appropriate time along with their students. House In-charge will allocate the work equally for all the members of their respective houses.
10. Ensure that all the participants have the appropriate sports dress for the respective events. Coordinate with the sports department to procure any necessary items well in advance.
11. Maintain open lines of communication with students regarding sports day preparations. Keep them informed about practice schedules, important dates and any changes in plans.

- ❖ The participants list will be posted in the WhatsApp groups for each event. HoDs should send only the participants to the field. Other students should not be allowed in the field.
- ❖ The non-participants should be in the class after 2.30 P.M. The HoD should allocate a faculty for each class. The HoD will monitor the discipline in their respective departments. If the HoD is the House In-charge, the HoD will allocate a person in the department to monitor and maintain discipline.
- ❖ Your dedication and commitment are key to making this sports day a memorable and successful event. I have full confidence that with your leadership, our students will shine both in their sporting achievements and their display of sportsmanship.
- ❖ Please feel free to reach out if you need any assistance or support in executing these responsibilities. Let's work together to create a vibrant and spirited sports day that showcases the best of our students' abilities.

Let us make this Sports Day a memorable and enjoyable experience for all!

Thank you
