DISCIPLINE AND STUDENT WELFARE COMMITTEE

The Code of Conduct for Students:

Our college management has arranged a Code of conduct meeting for all the students. The programme was organized by our esteemed principal Dr. R.D Thilaga on 28.07.2023 at Open air Auditorium. The Code of Conduct for Students serves as a guide to promote responsible, respectful, and ethical behavior within the institution. Students are expected to demonstrate academic integrity, maintain punctuality, and attend classes regularly. They must treat peers, faculty, and staff with respect, refraining from any form of discrimination, harassment, or misconduct. Additionally, students are responsible for safeguarding institutional property, using resources appropriately, and adhering to all rules and regulations. By following this code, students contribute to a positive and inclusive learning environment that supports their personal growth and academic success.

Code of Conduct for Staff:

Our college management has arranged a Code of conduct meeting for all the staffs. The programme was organized by our esteemed principal Dr. R.D Thilaga, Secretary and Academic coordinator on 31.08.2023 at Conference hall. The Code of Conduct for College Staff establishes a framework for professionalism, ethical behavior, and respect within the institution. It outlines expectations for maintaining integrity, accountability, and collaboration while fostering an inclusive and supportive environment. Staff members are required to perform their duties responsibly, uphold confidentiality, and treat colleagues, students, and stakeholders with respect. By adhering to institutional policies and prioritizing the welfare of students, the code ensures a harmonious and productive workplace. Its effective implementation enhances the institution's reputation, promotes trust, and contributes to the overall success of the college.
