The Department of English organized a Fresher's Day to warmly welcome the new faculty members Rev.Fr.Thiviya Alexander, HoD, Prof. Sowmiya and Prof.Vinoth, and first-year students. The event aimed to create a friendly and welcoming atmosphere, helping the newcomers integrate into the department. The event commenced at 1:00 p.m. and was creatively organized by the third year students, with support from the second-year students. Rev. Fr. Thivya Alexander, the Head of the Department, welcomed the gathering. He emphasized the importance of unity and collaboration in achieving academic excellence. Rev.Dr.Rajadevan the secretary of DBCAS joined the gathering to felicitate the department and to welcome the first year students. Action songs, party games, dance performance created a joyful ambience and spirit filled involvement at the arrival of the newcomers. The faculty members together with the students set a positive tone for the new academic year 2024-2025, with enthusiasm and determination. The event concluded with all attendees enjoying refreshments, providing an opportunity for informal interactions. The Fresher's Day celebration was a great success, marking a joyful and auspicious start to the academic year.
