Report on Extension Activity - Admission Drive

The Department of English organised an extension activity at St. Joseph Higher Secondary School, Keela Mudiman, Thoothukudi on 6th September 2024. This initiative aimed to provide career guidance, promote the various activities and programs offered by the Department of English.

The extension activity was led by Ms. R. Antony Sowmiya, Assistant Professor, Department of English accompanied with four students from the Department. The event was formally inaugurated with a prayer song. Prof. R. Antony Sowmiya gave the welcome address. The motivational speech was given by the principal of the school.

The Career Guidance focused on the significance of the English language and its impact on career development. The program included detailed presentations on department activities such as: Spoken English Classes, Collaboration with Beehive and Rotary Clubs, BELA Association

Seminars and Workshops, Certificate Courses, Sports and Cultural Events and Scholarships. Kamatchi from III B.A - English, Anto from II B.A - English and Jegatheeswari from I B.A - English shared their personal experiences, emphasising the importance of mastering English and its benefits in both academic and professional contexts. We conducted a motivational game for the students and gave prizes. The students distributed pamphlets containing valuable information about the Department of English, the college, and essential grammar resources, including parts of speech and tenses. The career guidance program concluded successfully, leaving the participants with a deeper understanding of the opportunities available through the Department of English.
